

Ellen C. Winters speaking at the dedication of Loma Linda Sanitarium, 1920

Loma Linda Sanitarium, with Hospital and North Laboratory in foreground

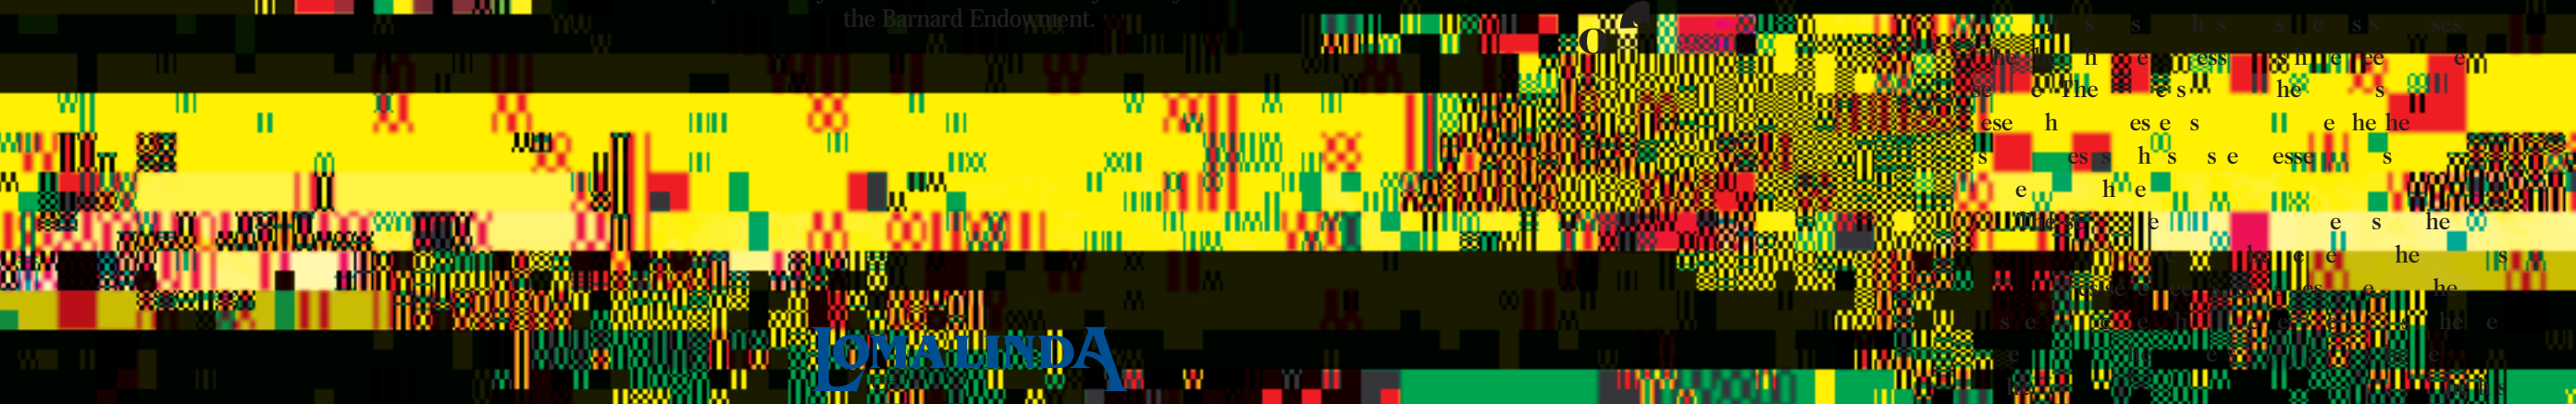

John Burleigh at the dedication of Loma Linda Sanitarium, 1920

Path of History

Loma Linda University
Loma Linda, California

This brochure was produced by Archives and Special Collections, Loma Linda University, as a joint project of the Heritage Room, the City of Loma Linda, and the Chamber of Commerce. Additional support was provided by the Loma Linda University Library and the Barnard Endowment.

Pepper grove and croquet area on the hill

Aerial view of Loma Linda, circa 1920. On the left are the Sanitarium and cottages, nurses' homes, and old chapel. Lower right corner is college campus.

LOMALINDA

Women's Dormitory, built in 1910 and occupied from 1911 to 1960.

Loma Linda Chapel, completed in 1910. Final service in 1987.

Site of Loma Linda Sanitarium, built in 1880s. Part of a hotel. Train station in foreground picture.

Site of Loma Linda Bowl, built in 1924. Used for graduations until 1950.

Site of North Laboratory, built in 1919.

Site of South Laboratory, built in 1919.

Garson Hall, built in 1934. Owned by University of Alberta.

1889 A. B. French Medical Missionary College, BMC building.

Site of first Loma Linda Hospital, dedicated on December 1, 1913.

Heritage Room, historical library of memorabilia and White Estate building.

Wood Samaritan study, completed in 1925.

Second Loma Linda Hospital, August 1924. The structure still stands on the west end of North Hill.

Remains of 1880s cottages still standing.

Sam's Hill Church, built in 1911 on top of Hill.